Barnsco - Dallas New Distributor of GatorBar™

Ahmeek, MI – February 24, 2017 – Neuvokas Corporation welcomes Barnsco as a stocking distributor “As a distributor, Barnsco will provide stocking service to the Dallas Fort Worth Metroplex area and Austin,” said Neuvokas Chief Executive Officer, Erik Kiilunen. “With their extensive Texas reach and industry leading service, Barnsco will bring incredible value to our efforts.”

“Barnsco has always taken the lead with new and innovative products. With the price of steel rising and the cost of FRP falling, I think the next few years will prove to be the beginning of a transition in the way concrete is reinforced, and we aim to be in the lead,” said Barnsco President, Jeff Barnes.

About Neuvokas Corporation. Neuvokas Corporation is an Ahmeek, MI based company, founded in 2013, that manufactures and distributes basalt fiber reinforced polymer (BFRP) rebar. Distributed under the GatorBar brand Neuvokas’ BFRP is stronger, seven times lighter than steel, is non-corrosive and is price equivalent to its’ domestically produced steel counterpart.

About Barnsco. Beginning in 1984, Barnsco has been supplying concrete contractors with quality construction materials. Barnsco Texas also specializes in equipment sales and rental. They are dedicated to earning customer loyalty by providing superior service as well as providing quality lines of construction materials. Barnsco’s core value is to treat their customers above the industry standard by providing them with attentive, courteous service in a timely manner. Barnsco has Dallas, Fort Worth and Austin showrooms and warehouses.
